

How Can 'Ōlelo Serve You?

'Ōlelo Community Television encourages you to express your views and experience the many voices of our community. Tune in to 'Ōlelo's diverse programming on its six cable channels. Call or visit your nearest Community Media Center. Community access belongs to you!

Programming Growth

Each year, 'Ōlelo cablecasts thousands of hours of original programming. Since 1993, the figure has grown by more than 1,000%, from just over 500 hours to more than 5,700 hours in 2007.

'Ōlelo Over the Years:

1989:

- 'Ōlelo is incorporated

1991-1993:

- 'Ōlelo assumes responsibility of O'ahu's only community access television channel from Oceanic Cablevision
- Second channel is launched
- Second Community Media Center is opened
- Remote video production van is acquired
- Certification training reaches 1,500 people
- First legislative session is televised

1994-1996:

- Māpunapuna office and studio facility are completed
- Third, fourth and fifth channels are launched

'Ōlelo Community Media Centers:

Māpunapuna
Community Media Center
1122 Māpunapuna Street
Honolulu, HI 96819
(808) 834-0007

Wai'anae
Community Media Center
85-251 Farrington Highway
Wai'anae, HI 96792
(808) 696-1003

Waipahu Community Media Center
Waipahu Intermediate School
94-455 Farrington Highway
Waipahu, HI 96797
(808) 671-3950