

MESSAGE FROM MAYOR KIRK CALDWELL

It gives me great pleasure to congratulate all of the finalists of the 'Ōlelo Community Media 2020 Youth Xchange Statewide Student Video Competition.

The well-made videos confirm that our young people are creative, talented and sincerely care for our islands. Although the award ceremony is a broadcast this year, I am certain that the event will acknowledge your efforts and celebrate your achievement.

Mahalo to 'Ōlelo Community Media and the sponsors for presenting this event. During this time, recognizing student achievement is a way for our community to look forward, especially when uncertain times provide defining moments for all of us. The Youth Xchange program helps students remain positive, engaged and motivated to continue learning.

On behalf of the people of the City and County of Honolulu, I would like to thank the teachers and parents for their support and encouragement and I extend best wishes to all students for success.
